2.1 Nomination and Remuneration Committee

The Board of Directors had agreed on 27 February 2013 to combine both the Nomination Committee and Remuneration Committee into one committee to be named as "Nomination and Remuneration Committee". The Nomination and Remuneration Committee comprises wholly of Independent Non-Executive Directors. (continued)

As part of the assessment process for financial year ended 2012, the Board also conducted a self-assessment on the effectiveness of the Board as a whole and the contribution of each Director to the effectiveness of the Board during the year.

2.2.2 Gender Diversity

The Company sees the participation of women as being fundamental to the achievement of equal opportunity in the workplace. The relatively large number of female employees (60%) in the Group is proof that the gender diversity approach has long been in practice in the Group.

The Company further believes, by virtue of being the apex body overseeing key issues as strategy execution, management of risks and governance, that Board diversity translates into a more effective Board.

In terms of the gender composition of the Board, the Company had a female Director as recently as June 2012. Dr Zaha Rina Zahari had been on the Board since 1 November 2007 and hence, bears testimony to the Group's long held gender neutral stance on Board membership. She stepped down on 1 July 2012 due to her other commitments and responsibilities.

The size of the Board was scaled down in 2012 to reflect the reduced scope of the Group's businesses following divestments and other closures of some of its companies. Three (3) out of the current nine (9) Board members are recent appointees, hence, it will not be feasible to appoint any additional member in the immediate future. However, should a vacancy arise for any reason, the Group will proactively consider nominating a qualified female to fill the said vacancy.

The Board is of the view that membership of the Board should be dependent on each candidate's skills, experience, core competencies and other qualities regardless of gender. The Board has also taken note of recommendation 2.2 of the Code in respect of formalising the gender diversity policy. Steps have been taken to review and revise the Procedure for the Appointment and Removal of Directors taking into consideration the requirement on gender diversity, and to formalise a gender diversity policy.

2.3 Remuneration Policies

Remuneration Committee met two (2) times during the financial year ended 2012 to review, assess and recommend to the Board the remuneration packages.

The Board is aware that fair remuneration is critical to attract, retain and motivate directors. The Remuneration Committee in discharging its responsibilities in the review of the remuneration considers various factors including the following:

- Directors' skills and experiences;
- Market rate for Executive Director's salary having regard to the nature of the Company's business;
- Evaluation conducted by the Nomination Committee with respect to the effectiveness and contribution of the Director concerned;
- Non-Executive Directors' time devoted to the Company's affairs; and
- Directors' experience and responsibilities undertaken.

The Remuneration of the Directors for the financial year ended 31 December 2012 is set out below:

The number of Directors whose total remuneration falls within the following bands is as follows:

The results of the self-assessment are evaluated and assessed at the Nomination and Remuneration Committee meeting. Thereafter, the Chairman of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee would report its recommendations to the Board for the decision of the Board.

The Board values the independent and objective judgment brought by the Independent Directors to the Board, and recognises that the independence of the Independent Directors is crucial to provide an unbiased and independent view, advice and judgment to take into account the interest, of not only the Group but also of shareholders, employees and communities in which the Company conducts business.

There have been changes to the Board composition and the Independent Directors of the Company for the financial year ended 2012 pursuant to the new recommendations under the Code.

The CEO/Group MD further ensures accurate and timely preparation of information for the Board on matters pertaining to the Group and sets the Board agenda for the approval of the Executive Chairman.

Based on the review and recommendation made by the Nomination Committee, the Board is of the view that Tunku Dato' Ya'acob bin Tunku Tan Sri Abdullah has been able to perform his role and responsibilities as the Executive Chairman without any impairment of objectivity and always in consideration of the best interests of the shareholders.

3.5 Composition of the Board

The Board is a balanced board with a complementary blend of expertise, with professional and business experiences relevant to the Group's business. These can be seen in the Board of Directors' profile section which illustrates the Directors' background and experiences.
